

whatever weight, one cent per hundred weight; and for weighing hems, cable, anchors, dye-woods, barks, etc., two cents per hundred pounds; and for inspecting and weighing corn in the ear and corn husks, one cent per hundred pounds.

P. L. L., (1880,) art. 4, sec. 415.

474. The inspector shall give a certificate of every load of hay or straw weighed, stating the gross and net weight of such straw or hay, and wagon, cart or sled; and if any seller of such hay and straw shall neglect or refuse to have the same weighed on the day of the delivery thereof, he shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect or refusal the sum of five dollars.

Ibid. sec. 416.

475. If any person bringing hay or straw to said city shall neglect to have the same weighed by the said inspectors, or shall be detected in having stones, rubbish, wood or anything else concealed in his load, or shall in any manner change the condition of his cart, wagon, carriage or sled, with a fraudulent intention, he shall forfeit and pay for each and every such offence the sum of five dollars.

Ibid. sec. 417.

476. If any person, after having his hay or straw weighed, and having obtained the inspector's certificate, specifying the quantity thereof, shall dispose of any part thereof, or in any manner diminish the same in quantity, thereby to defraud or deceive the purchaser thereof, he shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of twenty dollars.

Ibid. sec. 418.

477. The said inspectors may re-weigh carts, wagons, carriages or sleds, as often as they may deem expedient; and if at any time either of them shall be required to do so by a purchaser of hay or straw, and it shall be found that his report of the weight of the cart, wagon, carriage or sled is correct, the person requiring the same shall pay twenty cents to said inspector; in other cases the re-weighing shall be free of charge.
